About Bobby Fultz,

Minister of the Gospel

As a correctional officer in a maximum security prison in Illinois, Bobby Fultz rose up the ranks, retiring as Captain after twenty years,

He witnessed first-hand the cause and effects of being captive physically, mentally, emotionally and spiritually. He also saw how it affected the families and loved ones of the incarcerated individual.

After retirement, he returned to the prison he worked, this time to minister to the very same prisoners he dealt with on a daily basis. He was burdened to bring the Gospel message of salvation and the Kingdom to them and was driven to have their minds and hearts renewed in Christ so the enemy's hold on them would be broken.

Suddenly there was an earthquake so strong that it shook the foundation of the jail. All the doors of the jail opened, and the chains on all the prisoners fell off.

Acts 16:26

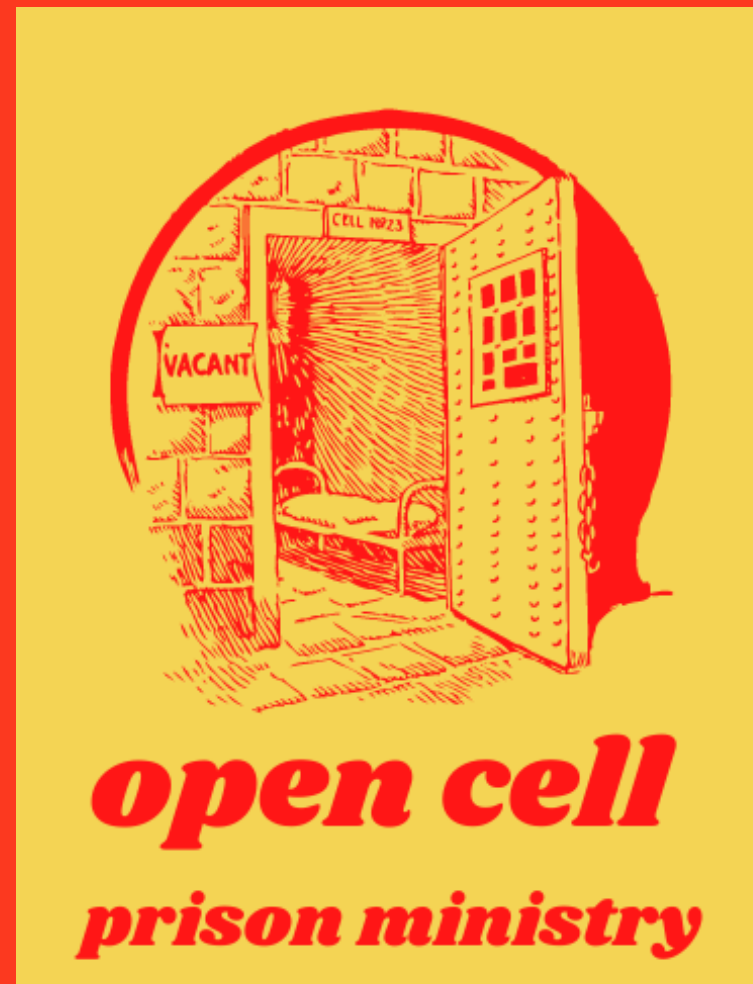

About OPEN CELL PRISON MINISTRY

The primary focus of Open Cell Prison Ministry is to minister to the incarcerated individuals. We also focus on the families (wives, husbands, children and extended family).

Our goal is to see people reconciled back to their Savior, Jesus Christ. Then we work on deliverance and healing of body, mind and emotions.

Our desire is to see the ex-offender and their families have a smooth transition back into the home and society. We want them whole, saved and ready to start a new life in Christ and succeed in society.

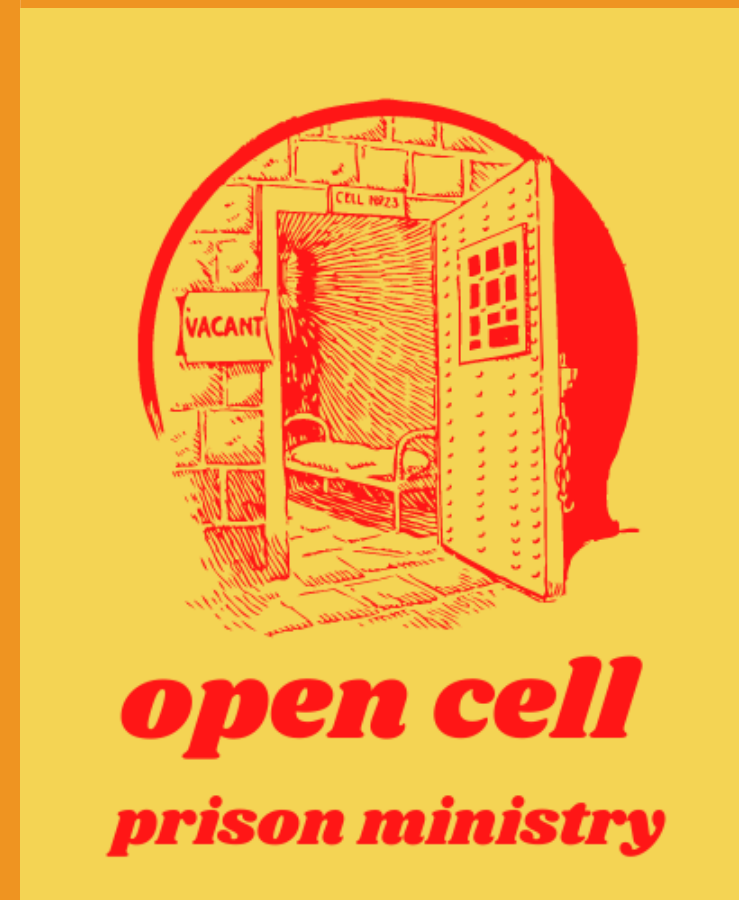

Building a Prison & Jail Ministry Team

Learn the right methods to minister in the jail/prison site and to the incarcerated. This is a rewarding and fruitful ministry!

- Offer hope of salvation through Jesus Christ
- Break the existing negative thought patterns and point the way for total transformation
- Build spiritual life skills in each person, so they can overcome issues they face
